SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCING

Paideia fellows are eligible for scholarships during their studies at Paideia. The scholarship includes tuition-free studies, a study trip to Israel and a monthly stipend of approximately 800€ (8000 SEK) per month to cover rent and living costs. The number of scholarships is limited. A student's ability to be financially self-sufficient or to secure external financing will be considered as merit in the admissions process.

Are you applying for a scholarship provided by Paideia? *

YES

If you will not be granted a scholarship from Paideia, would you be willing and able to take part in the program as a student without scholarship? *

YES

Paideia can provide accommodation with a flat rate of approx. 400€/month *

- I am applying for accommodation provided by Paideia (the rent for a room will be deducted from the scholarship)
- I will organize my own accommodation (full scholarship)

Paideia can assist fellows to find a room in the larger Stockholm area (maximum 1 hour travel from Paideia). A private room is guaranteed but in many cases kitchen and bathroom are shared with other tenants. The cost for the room is a flat rate of approx. 400€/month including water, electricity and heating.

Master's Program in Jewish Civilizations (with ELES scholarship)

Paideia and the Hochschule für Jüdische Studien Heidelberg (HfJS) in Heidelberg give a joint MA Program in Jewish Civilizations (students study 60 ECTS in Stockholm and 60 ECTS at HfJS). Students who want to go on to Heidelberg are required to have BA diploma in Social sciences/Humanities. For students interested in this MA Program, Paideia offers the possibility to apply for the Ernst Ludwig Ehrlich Studienwerk-Scholarships covering the entire MA Program. The application for MA Program is processed after being accepted to Paideia.

Are you preliminary interested in the MA Program in Jewish Civilization? *

YES (if accepted, you will be asked to send additional documents later in the application process)
